About "Online Orientation"

Introduction:

Interact Club of Sagarmatha Midtown conducted its Online Orientation on 9th July 2026 at Google Meet, commemorating another year of service, growth and fellowship. The event aimed to honor the club's journey, recognize its achievement, and strengthen the bonds among the new members for RY-2026/2027. The online orientation was all about introducing interact club to the new members.

Objectives:

- Introduce new members to the club's vision, mission and values
- Familiarize members with the club's structure roles, and responsibilities
- Encourage active participation in future activities
- Reflect on past achievements and learnings
- Create a welcoming environment and help members connect with each other.

Event summary:

The Online Orientation Event began with a welcoming address and the brief introduction of every Board Of Directors and members present in the club beside new ones highlighting the accomplishments of the club over the past year. Members were highly encouraged to join the club and make some impact on their personal growth.

Firstly, The event began with the introduction about interact and its norms and values. Over the event, the club's IPP also delivered her presentation, the past tenure's presentation was also displayed. Different tenure's presentations were also displayed briefly and also discussed about the events held over the past years and also discussed about the upcoming projects and plans for this tenure. Throughout the event the Board of directors shared their experiences, contributions on the past projects and personal learnings. To make the event more interactive the questions and answers session was also held where if anyone had some confusion regarding the topics discussed on the event. The program concluded with informal discussions and fellowship where members share their ideas and opinions for future initiatives.
