In addition to the speaker sessions, the event was enriched by two special performances. Renowned satirical singer Amit Jung delivered an engaging musical performance, while the alumni band Kanta Dab Dab entertained the audience with a lively performance, adding energy and celebration to the event. The organizing committee ensured the smooth execution of the program through effective planning, stage management, volunteering, hospitality, and audience engagement.

At the conclusion of the event, token of love were distributed to our speakers, emcee (Ms.Aarya Pandit) and to our sponsor (Buddha air) and along with that certificates of participation were distributed to all attendees as a token of appreciation for their presence and support. TEDxBudhanlikanthaYouth concluded successfully with overwhelmingly positive feedback, leaving participants inspired to think critically, embrace new perspectives, and contribute positively to their communities.
