About "Maternal and child health care"

Introduction

The Interact Club of New Environment (NEESS) successfully conducted a collaborative online 'Maternal and Child Health Care' program through Google Meet. The program aimed to raise awareness about the importance of maternal and child health. It was an informative session where participants learned valuable knowledge, shared ideas and gained a better understanding of promoting healthy communities.

Program summary

The program was successfully conducted under the mentorship of Mrs. Nabina Poudel, along with the presence of several respected Zonal Representatives and distinguished guests. The session was informative and interactive, providing participants with valuable knowledge and raising awareness about maternal and child health care.
