About “Orientation Program”

Introduction:

The Interact Club of Pamir organized an Orientation Program on 7 August 2026 at the Pamir International Academy Meeting Hall.

The program was organized to welcome and orient members about Interact, its purpose, club structure, responsibilities and opportunities for youth involvement. The session brought together Interact members, club representatives and invited guests from the Interact District and Zonal Team. It was a service- and leadership-oriented program designed to strengthen members' understanding and participation in the club.

Project summary:

The program began with the gathering of Interact members and invited guests at the meeting hall. The invited representatives shared guidance and information about Interact, leadership and club responsibilities. Members actively listened, participated in discussion and interacted with the guests. The session helped members understand the importance of teamwork, communication, leadership and active participation in club activities. The program also motivated members to take greater responsibility in future service projects. Overall, the Orientation Program was successfully completed with enthusiastic participation from the members.
