Project Summary

The orientation session was conducted in an interactive, informative, and engaging manner. The speakers provided the participants with an overview of the Interact program and explained how Interact provides young people with opportunities to learn, serve, lead, and grow together. They highlighted that Interact is not simply a club membership but a platform where students can participate in meaningful activities, contribute to the community, develop new skills, and build lasting friendships.

The session mainly focused on leadership, community service, fellowship, teamwork, and professional development. The participants learned how involvement in Interact activities can enhance their confidence, communication skills, leadership abilities, and sense of responsibility. The importance of cooperation, mutual respect, and active participation was also emphasized. The speakers encouraged the students to take initiative, work together, and make meaningful contributions through various club activities and service projects.

The orientation also helped the students understand the opportunities available to them as Interactors. They were encouraged to actively participate in future programs and make the best use of the experiences and learning opportunities provided by the club. Overall, the session was productive, informative, and inspiring, and it helped the new members gain a clearer understanding of what Interact is, why it is important, and what makes it a valuable platform for personal and social development.
