

Juice Distribution

Project no:- 5

Date:- August 8

Location:- Shivmandir

Specified committee:- Community based

Sponsoring Club:- Rotary club of Lumbini Siddharthnagar

Area of focus:- Juice Distribution

About:- 'Juice Distribution'

Introduction:-

The Juice Distribution Program was organized by the Interact Club of Kashi Noble Academy as a community service activity. The program was conducted at a temple where many people had gathered to participate in the bhajan. The club members distributed juice to the devotees as a gesture of care, hospitality, and service. Through this activity, the members got an opportunity to interact with the community and contribute to making the gathering more comfortable and enjoyable. The program also encouraged the values of teamwork, cooperation, kindness, and social responsibility among the club members.

Summary:-

The program started with the club members gathering at the temple and arranging the juice for distribution. They welcomed the devotees who came to participate in the bhajan and politely offered them juice as a refreshment. All the members actively participated in serving the people and made sure the distribution was carried out smoothly.

The activity created a warm and positive atmosphere among the participants. The club members enjoyed working together and interacting with the people while carrying out their service. It was a simple yet meaningful initiative that helped the members understand the importance of helping others and contributing to the community through small acts of kindness.

Feedback:-

Itr.Ritika sunar:- The program was a pleasant and meaningful experience. I enjoyed serving the people and working together with other club members.

Itr.Irfan khan:-It taught me that even a small act of kindness can bring happiness to others and make a positive difference in the community.
