Summary

The program's initial motive wasn't just to capture pictures rather than experience empathy and express gratitude beyond books. All the BOD gained an experience that's ineffable to describe. We played interactive games with children like truth and dare in which all the children showed great participation as well. Musical chair was held, and 1st, 2nd and 3rd were honoured with educational materials. More than 70 people showed up and many helping hands made the program a success. 10 bed sheets were also handed over for children at last all of us danced, ate and were reluctant to leave the place, we made a new family there that's unforgettable.
