About ‘ Nepal Blood Victims Candle Vigil’

Introduction:

In the wake of the devastating floods along the Bhotekoshi River, the Interact Club of Annapurna SOS gathered to organize a solemn memorial and prayer program. Recognizing the profound impact of this natural disaster on local communities, our members came together to pay tribute to the lives lost, share vital information about the ongoing situation, and offer our collective thoughts, light, and prayers to the grieving families during this difficult time.

Project Summary:

We gathered to pay tribute by displaying a visual banner, lighting candles, and observing a minute of silence for the departed souls. During the session, members were informed about the details of the flood victims and the extent of the disaster, followed by a collective prayer for the peace of the lost lives and the safe recovery of those still missing.

The main impacts/objectives of the event are as follows:

- Honor the memory of the lives lost in the Bhotekoshi River flooding through candle lighting and a minute of silence.
- Inform and sensitize members about the situation and impact on the victims' families.
- Express collective solidarity, thoughts, and prayers for the peace of the departed and the recovery of the missing.

Conclusion:

Overall, the memorial program provided a deeply moving moment of reflection and unity for our club. By coming together to light candles, observe a minute of silence, and pray for the victims, we reinforced our commitment to empathy, compassion, and community solidarity during times of tragedy.

Feedback of the attendees

1. "Lighting candles and observing a minute of silence made us truly connect with the gravity of the disaster and feel united in prayer for the families." (Itr. Aatmik Bhari)
2. "Learning about the victims and taking time to pray together showed the true spirit of empathy and community support within our club." (Itr. Milan Bhetal)
