About 'Gaijatra Water Distribution Program'

Introduction:

The Interact Club of Seabird successfully organized a Water Distribution Program during the celebration of Gaijatra with the aim of providing refreshment and support to people participating in the festival. The initiative focused on serving water and juice to the people attending the Gaijatra procession while promoting the spirit of community service and social responsibility among club members.

Project Summary:

The Gaijatra Water Distribution Program was successfully conducted at two locations, Bhaktapur and Dui Pokhara, during the Gaijatra celebration. Club members distributed drinking water and juice to people attending the procession, providing refreshment to participants throughout the event. The program saw the active involvement of every club member, demonstrating strong teamwork, coordination, and dedication toward community service.

The initiative allowed the club to contribute to the community during one of the important cultural festivals while also encouraging members to actively participate in service-oriented activities. Through this program, the Interact Club of Seabird promoted the values of fellowship, teamwork, and service to the community.

Feedbacks of Attendees:

1. “The program was a great experience that taught us the importance of teamwork and service.”
2. “I enjoyed working with all the members and helping people by providing water and juice during the festival.”
3. “The water and juice distribution was very helpful and refreshing during the Jatra. We really appreciated the club's initiative.” -Jatra Participant
