

Strokes of Litreature

Project Number: 8

Date: 14 September, 2026

Location: Google Meet

Collaborated with:

Interact Club of Golden Gate International College

Specified Committee: Public Relation

Guests:

1. Itr. Anuja Ojha, Zonal Executive, Zone 6, Interact District 3292, Nepal and Bhutan

Area of Focus: Peace Building and Conflict Prevention

About 'Strokes of Litreature'

1. Introduction

The Interact Club of Matribhumi Baluwatar, in collaboration with the Interact Club of Golden Gate International College, successfully participated in the virtual literary event titled "Strokes of Litreature" a platform & literature exchange fest dedicated to bringing together young individuals with an interest in literature and creative expression.

The event aimed to provide participants with an opportunity to share their literary creations and explore different forms of storytelling, poetry, prose, and dramatic readings. It brought together members from different Interact Clubs, creating an engaging space for participants to express their thoughts, creativity, and perspectives through literature.

2. Project Summary

The Literature Exchange Fest was organized as a collaborative literary initiative, with participating clubs each selecting 3–4 representatives to share their original literary creations. Each participant was given a minimum of three and a maximum of four minutes, allowing every club to collectively present their works within the allocated time.

Itr. Roshani Kumari

Mahato

President RY(2026/27)

Interact Club of Matribhumi Baluwatar
Kathmandu

Email:

mahatorkm21@gmail.com

Cell no:

9863555211

Itr. Kabita Chapagain delivered the welcome speech, setting a warm and encouraging tone for the event. The program was hosted by Itr. Pratik Gupta, who guided the session and facilitated the presentations throughout the event.

Several participants shared their thoughts, ideas, and creativity through poems and other forms of literature, making the session diverse and engaging. The exchange of literary pieces allowed participants to experience different writing styles, perspectives, and forms of creative expression.

The Interact Club of Matribhumi Baluwatar was represented by Itr. Leeza Bista, Itr. Sarthak Shrestha, Itr. Rojeen Upadhaya, and Itr. Ankita Rai Yadav, who actively participated in the event and contributed to the literary exchange.

The event brought together participants from the Interact Club of Valley Public, Interact Club of Golden Gate International College, and Interact Club of Matribhumi Baluwatar and many more clubs. The presence of Itr. Amlan Sam as an international guest from Bangladesh, added to the significance of the gathering and encouraged interaction among young people from different backgrounds.

The combination of literary presentations and shared creative expression created an engaging environment where participants could appreciate different perspectives while finding a common connection through literature.

Itr. Roshani Kumari

Mahato

President RY(2026/27)

Interact Club of Matribhumi Baluwatar
Kathmandu

Email:

mahatorkm21@gmail.com

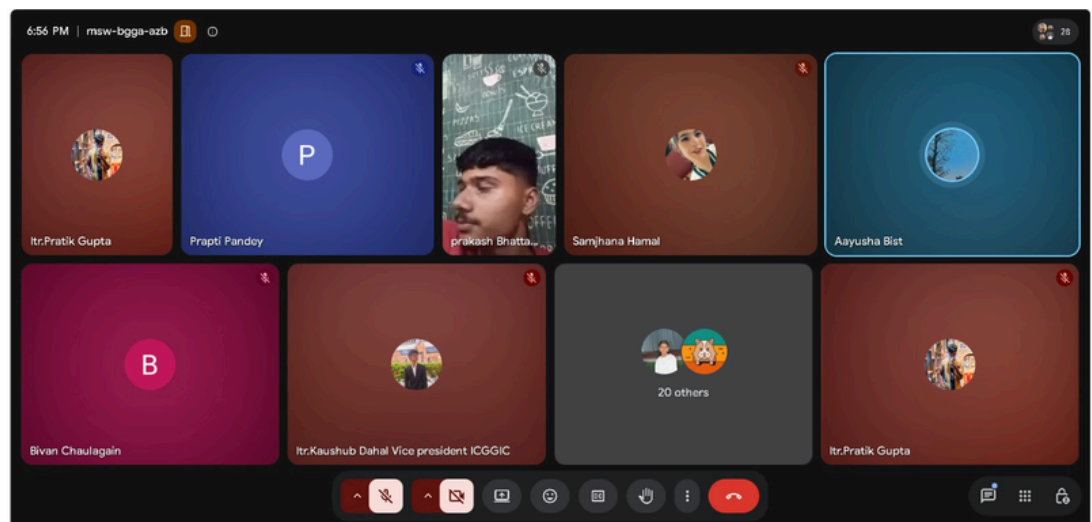

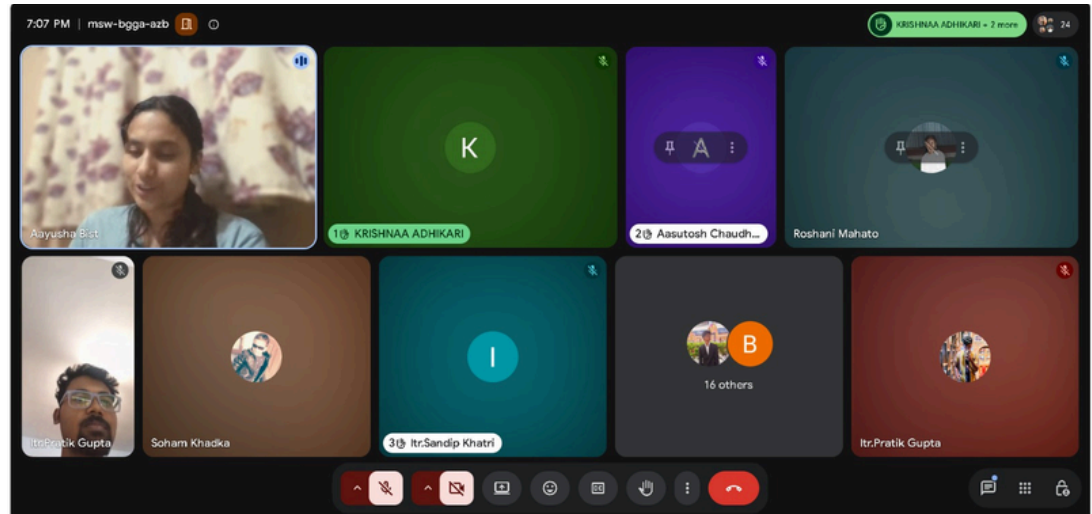

Cell no:

9863555211

3. Feedback

“Strokes of Literature was such a fantastic blend of art and storytelling. The theme gave everyone a really cool canvas to turn written emotion into visual art. Everything ran smoothly, the energy was super engaging, and the depth of talent on display was genuinely inspiring. It was a great celebration of how art and literature feed off each other!” said Itr. Pratik Gupta, secretary of Interact Club of Goldengate International College.

Itr. Roshani Kumari
Mahato
President RY(2026/27)

Interact Club of Matribhumi Baluwatar
Kathmandu

Email:
mahatorkm21@gmail.com

Cell no:
9863555211