About The Community Meal Service

Introduction:

On October 18, 2026, the Interact Club of Gyanda Academy conducted a Bhandara (Free Community Meal Service) in Birgunj, organized under the leadership and initiative of Immediate Past President Itr. Yash Agarwal. Serving as a fully sponsored community project, the initiative engaged members of the Board of Directors in active volunteerism and hands-on service. The program aimed to address local food security and foster goodwill, demonstrating the club's commitment to selflessness, youth leadership, and impactful community outreach without financial expenditure from the club treasury.

Project Summary:

The Interact Club of Gyanda Academy organized a Bhandara (Free Community Meal Service) on October 18, 2026, driven by Immediate Past President Itr. Yash Agarwal. Executed as a zero-cost project for the club, the event mobilized available Board of Directors and club members to serve free, nutritious meals to community members in Birgunj. Through direct physical volunteering and community engagement, the initiative successfully promoted food support, solidarity, and the core Rotary virtue of Service Above Self.
