About “spill the tea : why should I care about traditions?”

Introduction:
“Spill The Tea” is a capsule podcast initiated by the Interact Club of Everest on 4th september, where Interactors take the role of hosts and invite different guests for meaningful conversations. The podcast is a platform to learn from others, share ideas, and discover new stories and experiences.

Summary:
For the first episode, we welcomed Mr. Narayan Poudel, the past president of the Shree Krishna Mandir Committee, as our guest. Every interactor present there could gain cultural knowledge as our Community service director hosted this episode of podcast asking meaningful questions to Mr.Poudel. He shared his views on youths, culture, and traditions, along with his own experiences. His words helped us understand our culture better and reminded us of the role of youths in keeping our traditions alive. The episode was simple, engaging, and full of valuable learning, making the first “Spill The Tea” a memorable start.
