Area of Focus: Raising Awareness

Introduction

On the occasion of World Polio Day, we organized a Polio Awareness Rally in collaboration with the Rotary Club of Rupandehi. The rally began at Gautam Buddha Gate and continued towards Butwal, bringing people together with a shared commitment to raising awareness about polio eradication.

Program Summary

The rally was a memorable experience of unity, teamwork, and harmony. Walking together with a common purpose made us realize the power of collective efforts in creating awareness and bringing positive change to society. It was not just a rally but also a beautiful opportunity to strengthen our fellowship and work together for a meaningful cause.
