About (changa chate)

Introduction

Changa Chait is a traditional Nepali activity celebrated during the Dashain festival. During this time, children and adults enjoy flying colourful kites in the sky. It brings happiness, excitement, and togetherness among family and friends. Flying kites is a beautiful part of Nepali culture and tradition. It makes the Dashain celebration even more joyful and memorable.

Summary

Changa Chait is a fun and exciting tradition of the Dashain festival in Nepal. People enjoy flying colourful kites in the sky with their family and friends. It brings happiness, joy, and togetherness among people. This tradition makes Dashain more special and helps us preserve our Nepali culture and traditions.
