Evening With Rotarians

To celebrate Historical Tuesday during Interact Week, our club organized "Evening with Rotarians." We brought together our members and guests from our parent Rotary Club for an open, engaging chat about where Rotary and Interact came from, what we stand for, and how both organizations continue to make a real impact across the globe.The main objective of the event was to reconnect young Interactors with the historical origins, philosophy, and global evolution of the Rotary-Interact movement. By creating an interactive dialogue with senior leaders and officials from the parent Rotary Club, the event sought to give members a deeper context behind their organizational identity, values, and responsibilities as emerging global leaders

The Rotarians took us back to 1905 in Chicago, sharing how founder Paul Harris started a simple fellowship of professionals that grew into today's massive global network for social good.We looked back to 1962, when Rotary launched Interact to give young people aged 12–18 a space to lead, take on local and international service projects, and build real-world leadership skills.
The discussion reminded us what lies at the heart of everything we do: putting "Service Above Self" and building genuine friendships across borders.The Rotarians shared inspiring stories of global efforts—like the ongoing fight to eradicate polio—as well as local community projects in education, health, and disaster relief driven by youth leaders.

It was a powerful reminder of the history behind the Interact pin we wear. Hearing directly from senior Rotarians gave all of us a renewed sense of purpose and motivation to keep leading projects that genuinely help our community

BEYOND THE BLUEPRINTS

Summary

.On the second day of World Interact Week (Historical Tuesday), the Interact Club of Golden Gate International College hosted "Evening with Rotarians," an interactive history and fellowship session with officials from their parent Rotary Club.

The event traced the complete timeline of the movement—starting from Paul Harris founding Rotary in 1905 to address community needs, to the official launch of Interact in 1962 to empower youth leaders aged 12–18. Senior Rotarians shared how both organizations transform lives globally through structural service initiatives (such as global polio eradication and local youth development) while instilling the motto "Service Above Self." The session successfully bridged the gap between Rotary's rich history and the active leadership roles of today's young interactors.
