About 'Historic Tuesday'

Introduction:

The Interact Club of Seabird observed Historic Tuesday as part of Interact Week. The day was dedicated to reflecting on what Interact means to its members and how the club shapes the people who are part of it. To mark the occasion, two members of the Board of Directors, the Community Service Director and the Vice President, recorded a video sharing their personal experiences as Interactors.

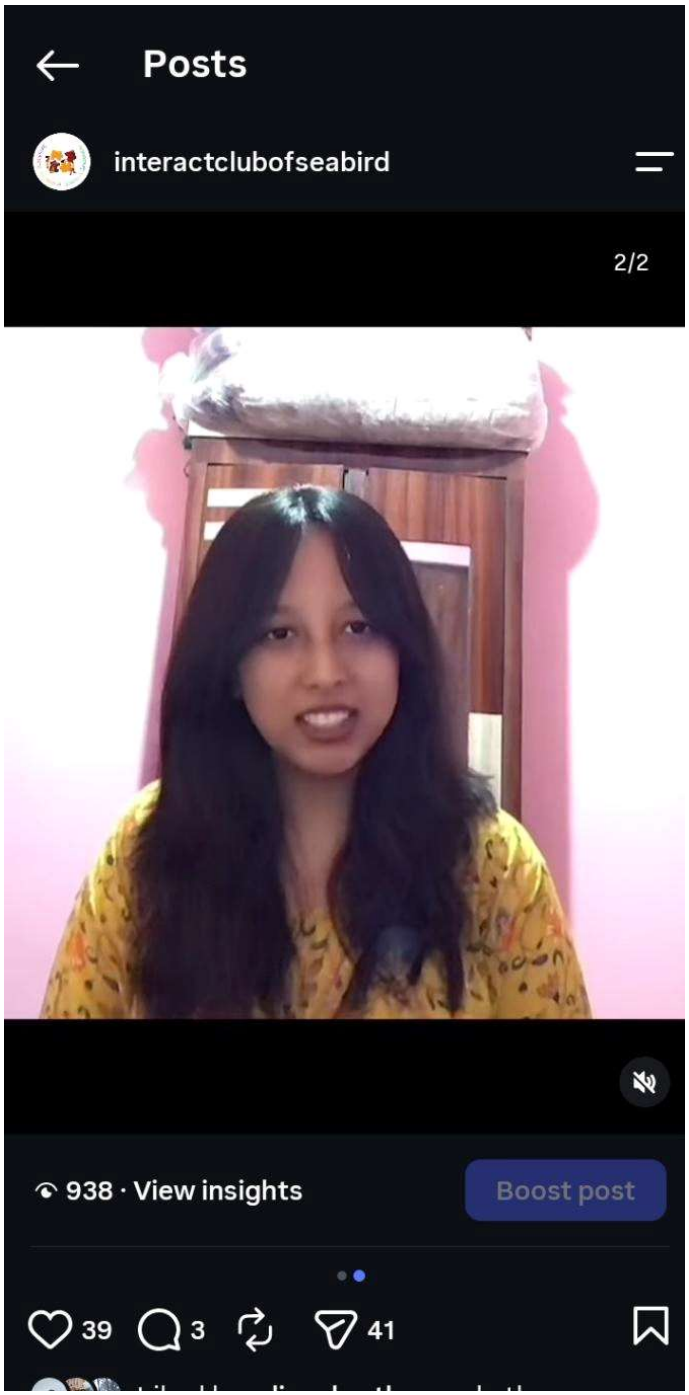

Project Summary:

On Historic Tuesday, the Community Service Director and the Vice President of the Interact Club of Seabird recorded a video talk about their journey in Interact. The video was prepared to be posted on the club's Instagram pages so that it reaches members, past participants and the wider community.
In the video, the two Board Directors shared why they chose to join Interact, how joining the club changed them, and the benefits they have gained from being an Interactor. They also gave their views on Interact and spoke about its advantages, and ended with suggestions for fellow Interactors on how to improve the club and get the maximum out of it. Hearing directly from Board Directors gave members a genuine look at the value of Interact and encouraged them to take part more actively.

Key Points Discussed:

1. Why they chose to join Interact.
2. How joining Interact changed them personally.

3. The benefits they have received from the club.
4. Their views on Interact and its advantages.
5. Suggestions for Interactors to improve the club and get the most out of it .
