About: A Presentation

Introduction:-

With the complete members of the Interact, the event was a whole burst of knowledge, history and fun. Slides were shown with accordance of the theme and explained thoroughly which led the young interactors deeper in the rabbit hole of Interact. Itihasya Chronicles was an event which made interactors more aware, taught them something and brought the family closer.

Project Summary:-

Members were summoned in the auditorium and seated formally as the presentation officially started with the introduction. Various topics were briefed upon with some little trivias in between. Queries were asked from the general members and so were they answered. In the end, a small quiz was with free floor to answer the questions. The attentive students who were able to do so were rewarded with choco-funs.

The entire team of BODs, staff, the BTS team and tecahers who gave their valueable time of tecahing to contritube to this project are thanked heartfully.
