Introduction:
On 6th November, 2026, the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail celebrated "Cultural Friday" as part of World Interact Week. Members were invited to share photos and videos of themselves in their traditional attire, while two board members spoke about the significance of Nepali culture.

Project Summary:
The Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail successfully organized "Cultural Friday" as part of its World Interact Week celebrations. For this event, members were asked to send in photos or videos of themselves wearing their traditional cultural dress. Members responded enthusiastically, with submissions showing the many traditions, communities, and identities represented within the club. Two board members, Itr. Bipisha Dahal and Itr. Om Krishna Dhakal, shared the significance of Nepali culture, speaking about its diversity, traditions, and the importance of preserving and respecting it. All the photos and videos were then compiled into a single reel video, which presented the colorful variety of attire and customs in one place. The reel was shared with the wider audience and received appreciation for its creativity and visual appeal. The event showed that, although the club is small, its members come from many parts of the country and carry a rich mix of cultural backgrounds. It also encouraged members to take pride in their own heritage while learning about the traditions of their fellow Interactors, strengthening the bond of unity within the club.

In conclusion, “Cultural Friday” was a colorful and meaningful celebration for the Interact Club of Prativa Pokhara Fishtail. Through the members’ participation and the insights shared by Itr. Bipisha Dahal and Itr. Om Krishna Dhakal, the event highlighted the richness of Nepali culture and the diversity within the club. The compiled reel preserved these moments in a lasting form, and the event reinforced the values of unity in diversity, mutual respect, and cultural pride that Interact stands for.
