About “Celebration Thursday: The birthday”

Introduction:

On the occasion of the fourth day of World Interact Week 2026, celebrated as Celebration Thursday: The Birthday, the Interact Club of Narayani Public School marked the 64th anniversary of Interact with great enthusiasm and joy. The celebration was organized to recognize the journey of Interact and its contribution towards developing young leaders, promoting friendship, and encouraging community service across the world. It also provided an opportunity for club members to come together, celebrate , and appreciate being part of a club of young people working towards positive change.

Summary:

The celebration brought together approximately 25 members out of the club's total membership of 44 Interactors. The members gathered to mark this special occasion and celebrate 64 years of Interact's inspiring journey. The occasion created a joyful environment filled with excitement, fellowship, and a shared sense of friendship among the participants. Members took part in the celebration with great enthusiasm, making the day a memorable moment for the club.

The celebration also served as a reminder of the values that unite Interactors around the world, including leadership, friendship, understanding, and service. Being part of this milestone encouraged members to appreciate the opportunities. Through this celebration, IC-NPS joined the worldwide Interact community in honouring 64 years of inspiring young minds and creating positive change.

Conclusion

The celebration of Interact's 64th anniversary was a joyful and meaningful occasion for the members of IC-NPS. It strengthened the spirit of fellowship and reminded everyone of the purpose and values of Interact. The enthusiastic participation of club members made the celebration special and memorable. As Interact continues its inspiring journey, the club remains encouraged to uphold its values and contribute towards a better community through leadership and service.

Feedback

1. General Member :- The celebration was a joyful moment for all of us. I felt happy to be part of the Interact family and enjoyed sharing this special occasion with my fellow Interactors. It inspired me to remain active and contribute more to our club.
