About 'End Polio Awareness Rally'

Introduction: On the occasion of World Polio Day, the Interact Club of Lumbini Shree Gautam Buddha Secondary School (Club ID: 211664) actively participated in a grand End Polio Awareness Rally held at the iconic Lumbini Gate in Bhairahawa. Led by Club President Itr. Pramosion Bhandari and Club Secretary Itr. Samikshya Kunwar, the team joined hands with multiple regional Rotary clubs to advocate for global immunization and polio eradication.

Project Summary: Dressed in official campaign gear, club members marched alongside community leaders and Rotarians to raise public awareness about the ongoing mission to keep the world polio-free. President Itr. Pramosion Bhandari and Secretary Itr. Samikshya Kunwar spearheaded the club's delegation, motivating young Interactors to take active leadership roles in public health advocacy. The rally successfully united youth and community members in spreading a powerful message of health, service, and social responsibility.
