About 'Membership Monday'

Introduction:

Marking the first day of World Interact Week (November 2–8, 2026), the Interact Club of Lumbini Shree Gautam Buddha Secondary School visited Minerva High School to celebrate "Membership Monday". The program aimed to introduce high school students to the core values of Interact, youth leadership, and community service.
Project Summary:
Led by Club President Itr. Pramosion Bhandari and Club Secretary Itr. Samikshya Kunwar, the club members interacted with students and faculty at Minerva High School. They showcased the official World Interact Week schedule banner, shared insights on the importance of community involvement, and encouraged students to embrace leadership through service. The outreach program successfully built inter-school connections and inspired new prospective members to join the movement.
