Venue: Balodaya Secondary School
About: CELEBRATING TOGETHER – Interact Anniversary Cake-Cutting Celebration
Specified Community: Club Service
Area Focused On: Peacebuilding and Conflict Prevention

Introduction

CELEBRATING TOGETHER was a cake-cutting celebration organized by the Interact Club of Balodaya Pokhara on 5th November 2026 as part of Interact Week 2026. The celebration marked the anniversary of Interact and brought together the Board of Directors (BOD) to recognize the journey, spirit, and achievements of the Interact movement. It aimed to strengthen fellowship and celebrate the bond that connects Interactors as one family.

Event Summary

The celebration was held after school, with the participation of the Board of Directors. The cake-cutting ceremony marked a special moment of togetherness, symbolizing friendship, unity, and the shared journey of Interact.

Although it was a small celebration, it carried a meaningful message about the importance of fellowship and the connections built through Interact. The gathering provided an opportunity for the BOD to celebrate the anniversary together and create memorable moments beyond their regular responsibilities.

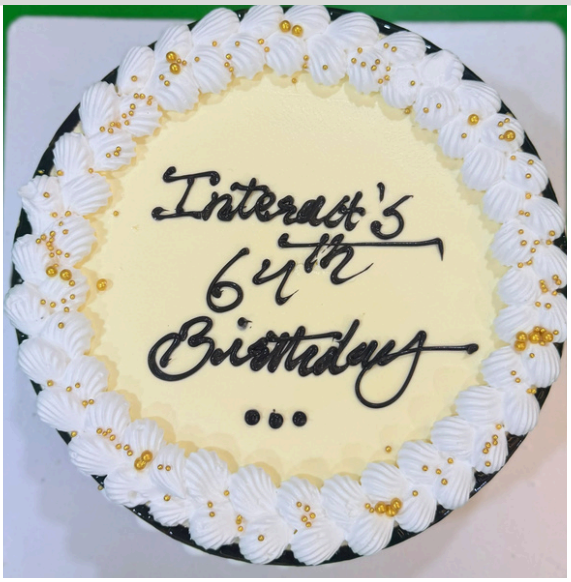

CELEBRATING TOGETHER added a joyful touch to Interact Week 2026 and reminded everyone that Interact is not only about leadership and community service but also about friendship, belonging, and celebrating milestones together.
